What's new with LAE-GED?

LAE-GED is currently involved in many community service and fundraising activities. It has been the local chapter's primary focus this year to be more involved with the community, and to recruit dedicated individuals. The activities that LAE-GED are heavily involved in include an array social events such as University Football games, academic events like Criminal Justice Career Day scheduled for the first of October, and a host of community service and fundraising activities. The organization is working hard to maintain the title as National and Regional champions, and is also planning to increase community involvement.

Criminal Justice Career Day 2008!

To LAE-GED, Criminal Justice Career Day is more than a Criminal Justice gathering. It is an opportunity for Criminal Justice students to network and become more informed about career opportunities in Criminal Justice. During this event more than 150 employees, representing over 50 agencies from across the nation have participate. Agencies from throughout the criminal justice system will attend, including federal and local law enforcement, corrections, probation and parole, juvenile justice, loss prevention, safety and private security, fire safety, and law schools. This event is sponsored by the University Of Central Missouri Department Of Criminal Justice ACJA-Lambda Alpha Epsilon Gamma Epsilon Delta Chapter. Regional Competition 2008!

To prepare for Regional Competition, LAE-GED coordinates study groups to maintain their status as the best! Looking forward to winning their 7th Regional title, the organization is scheduled to compete in Kirksville, Missouri October 31 to November 2. Competition areas include Physical agility, Academic testing (LAE Knowledge, Criminology/Juvenile, Corrections, Criminal Law, and Policing), and Firearms. There will also be social events at the completion for members to engage in. A dance party will be given, and trivia night will allow members to win prizes.

Fundraising & Service

To all interested LAE Members, LAE will be participating in a two day fundraiser at Worlds of Fun (WOF). The fundraiser is intended to pay for competitions, and which competition is to be decided and/or voted upon (Regional's/Nationals). LAE has reserved twenty-five spots and transportation will be provided by the UCM-CJ Department. The vehicles will leave from the University Conference Center (UCC) at 2:45pm each of the two days. It is very important that all participating members wear black pants, white tops, and tennis shoes. Be sure to bring money for food and prepare to have a great time. Fundraising days are October 10, 2008 from 5pm to 1am, and October 11, 2008 from 5 pm to 2 am. – LAE Editor: M. Hampton

Alumni Involvement

We are inviting all alumni and professional members to participate in this process by volunteering their time in fundraising, sharing their ideas to improve Lambda Alpha Epsilon, and serve as mentors to the LAE-GED Criminal Justice students. With the involvement and support of professional and alumni members, networking opportunities will be made available to members, and the continuous maintenance of a historic organization would be in progress.

The New Executive Board

For those who have not noticed, the faces of the LAE-GED executive board have changed. The new appointed president, Jenn Ianno has been quite busy cooking up something that will surely empower her organization, expand its growth, and leave her mark as a productive member of the organization she loves. Vice president Brent Jepson is contributing greatly with the organization of CJCD, while Treasurer Steve Aston has been busy with finances and fundraising. Steve has been planning many fundraising activities for the chapter, and proudly contributes to the development of other chapter affairs. Secretary Rachael Feagan keeps things orderly as she designs and monitors the organization's T-shirts. Sergeant of Arms Alan Martinez is keeping things in order as he plans the organization's Black and Red party scheduled for later next month, and historian Timasha Haliburton is busy keeping the website and newsletter intact. It is clear that the members of the executive board have lots planned for GED this year. We'll keep you updated monthly on their progress!!
