7th Time National Champions 2009

The LAE-GED University of Central Missouri Criminal Justice fraternity claims their seventh national title in Jacksonville, FL April 5-10. The team competed in Criminal law, LAE Knowledge, Crime Scene Investigation, Corrections, Police management, and Juvenile Justice. President Jenn Ianno credits the victory to the team's hard work ethic. "A lot of students go to competition to party. We go to win". It is no surprise to the other chapters that GED has their strategy down. Preparing for regional's, which will be held in Columbia, MO, the chapter is much focused on strengthening its numbers. Many of the participants that contributed to the chapter's success are graduating this May 2009, and the future legacy will rest upon new membership. Being national champions, recruitment will not be a challenge for this group. GED looks to the future, and stand proud with their ongoing success.

Congratulations to the Graduates

With the semester dwindling down to weeks, graduating seniors have lots to look forward to. Celebrating their national title is only the beginning. The criminal justice departments graduating seniors Brian Wilkins, Jessica Nelson, Timasha Haliburton, Steven Verble, Danielle Hoskins, Melissa May, Clarinda Garrett, and Wesley Prettyman are ready to enjoy the fruits of their labor. These individuals are members of the American Criminal Justice Association

Lambda Alpha Epsilon Gamma Epsilon Delta chapter, and have participated in their victory as 2009 National champions. University of Central Missouri wishes the best of luck to all graduating Criminal Justice and LAE-GED members.

Alumni Involvement

We are inviting all alumni and professional members to volunteer their time educating and informing the membership concerning opportunities in the Criminal Justice field. Alumni are also encouraged to give suggestions on what can be done to improve the membership. With the involvement of the alumni and professional members of GED, networking opportunities will be made available to the current membership.

For more information about volunteering your time, please feel free to contact GED President, Mrs. Jenn Ianno.
